

SANSKRIT SAPTAH SAMAPAN AND JANAMASHTMI CELEBRATION

01-09-2018

The ongoing sanskrit saptah concluded today, amalgamated with janamashtmi celebration. The event witnessed the presence of Mahamandaleshwar Swami Shashwatanand ji as an honourable chief guest. He lighted the ceremonial lamp followed by saraswati vandana and chanting of vedic mantras. The students presented short skit, samvad and group songs. The students decked up in colourful attire representing krishna, gopikas and different characters of Mahabharata illustrated through a well choreographed act the fact that whenever there will be dominance of malevolence 'He' will reincarnate to destroy the evil and save the good. The whole act was brought to life by the scintillating performance of the students. The chief guest congratulated everyone for the successful completion of sanskrit saptah and simplified that the ultimate truth is 'Krishna' himself. Quoting examples from his life he urged the students to concentrate on what is on their priority list, only then they can create history. The celebration ended with shanti mantra.

